

[Hackstaff, J. Frank]

Hackstaff, J. Frank died yesterday at his home, 1244 Union Street after a lingering illness. He was born in Prattsville, N.Y., March 30, 1850, and had lived in Brooklyn since 1891. For many years he was in the advertising field and later became publisher of the "Illustrated Companion." He was also a noted woman suffrage worker and, together with his wife, Mrs. Priscilla D. Hackstaff, who died a few years ago, was greatly responsible for the success of the movement in Kings County. He was a member of the Universalist Church of Our Father. He is survived by three sons, John D., Richard C., and Frederick W. Hackstaff; two sisters, Mrs. S.H. Hemicke, of Rosell, N.J., and Tateline Hackstaff, and two brothers, George C. and J.C. Hackstaff, of Denver, Col. Services were held at the funeral parlors, 86 Lefferts Place, this afternoon, followed by cremation.
