

[Hagy, George]

George Hagy

George Hagy, a native of Switzerland, aged 66 years, died at his home on State street Tuesday morning. The deceased suffered an attack of grip recently and had been confined to the house for several days. Nothing serious was feared until pneumonia developed. Mr. Hagy had lived in Fort Plain for the most part of his life and was an upright citizen whose many friends will regret his death. Besides his widow Mr. Hagy is survived by two sons, Louis, who lives in the west, and John of this village; a daughter, Mrs. William Gottung of Nelliston; a sister, who lives in Albany, and a brother of Philadelphia. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon from the deceased's late home. Rev. Dr. [Herbert Frank] Moulton [Universalist] officiating, and interment made in the Fort Plain cemetery.
