William F. Hale, Lifelong Ellery Resident, Dies

William F. Hale, 83, of the Dutch Hollow Road, a lifelong resident of Ellery and one of the most widely known men in the town, died at the Jamestown General Hospital on Monday evening.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Chestina E. Hale; three daughters, Mrs. Walter Harvey and Mrs. Hart Harvey of Greenhurst and Mrs. Gertrude Dunham of the Dutch Hollow Road; a son, Alfred B. Hale of Buffalo; 16 grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Mr. Hale was a member of Union Grange of Jamestown, which he had served as master, and a director of the Fluvanna Cemetery Association. He and his wife celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary on March 10, 1944.

The remains are at the family home and funeral services will be held there on Thursday at 2 P.M., with Rev. Dr. Walter A. Taylor of the Bemus Point Universalist Church officiating. Interment will be in the Fluvanna Cemetery.
