

[Hall, Lyda K. Wetmore]

Death of Mrs. Lyda K. Hall

Mrs. Lyda K. Hall died Thursday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Augusta Wetmore, at Big Island, aged 50 years and 24 days. She was the wife of Fred Hall, deceased. Mrs. Hall was born in the town of Goshen. Besides her mother she is survived by one son, Harvey, of Harrison, N.J.; a daughter, Mrs. Harry Landen of Bellsville, N.J.; and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Van Riper, of Pine Island; Mrs. McArthur, of Newark; and Mrs. Bassett. The brothers are James of Trenton, Joseph of Wehrum, Pa.; William of Philadelphia; Gabriel of New Hampshire; Robert and David of Newark; Everett of Goshen; Harry of Sussex, and Charles Wetmore at home.

Mrs. Hall was a member of the Universalist Church of Middletown. She leaves a large number of friends who will sincerely mourn her death.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Florida Presbyterian Church. Interment in Florida Cemetery.

Independent Republican, Goshen NY, Fri. 4 Oct 1918

Transcribed on 19 Mar 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY