MRS. HAMAKER, FORMERLY OF AUBURN, DIES

Word has been received here on the death on July 7 of Mrs. Wesley Hamaker at her home in Port Dorer, Ontario, Canada.

Mrs. Hamaker, whose maiden name was Mary Barbara Raeisch, was born in this city, a daughter of the late Albert Raeisch, whose sculpture adorns many monuments in Fort Hill and North Street Cemeteries.

She was a member of the First Universalist Church here, and during her residence in Auburn was always active in church and Sunday School work, and was elected vice President of the King's Daughters when the circle was first organized in 1893 by Ms. O. M. Hilton, wife of the pastor at that time. Besides her husband, Mrs. Hamker is survived by a sister, Mrs. Clayton Hicks of this city. Interment was in Port Dover.
