

[Hare, Cynthia Braley Beal]

Mrs. Cynthia Beal Hare

Cynthia Beal Hare died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Ballard, 17 Proctor Boulevard, this morning, about 1 o'clock.

Cynthia Beal was born in Macedon, N.Y., Feb 17, 1848. She received her education at the schools of that place. [On] Oct. 11, 1865, she was united in marriage with Noah Hare of Macedon, where her entire life up until a few months ago was spent. Her husband died four years ago. Mrs. Hara was a member of the Universalist Church of Macedon, always faithful in her duties and a devout member of the congregation. She was always in the best of health, apparently, and her death resulted after an illness of only two days.

Mrs. Hare was a woman much respected by all who knew her, and was especially devoted to her home. She was a woman of the highest type, and her death brings sorrow to a large circle of friends and relatives. She came to Utica to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Ballard, and until that time had never been long away from her native village. Interment will be made in the family plot at Macedon, the remains to be taken there by Undertaker Gordon.

Mrs. Hare is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Ray Ransom of Macedon, Mrs. Frank Fowler of New Hartford and Mrs. Charles Ballard of Utica. She also leaves five sons: Edward, Herbert and Harrison of Worcester, Mass., Ira of Poughkeepsie, and Shirley of Macedon.
