

[Harrington, Alzina Colburn]

ILION.

Mrs. Warren Harrington

At her home on East Clark street yesterday occurred the death of Mrs. Warren Harrington. She had been ill since last Thursday.

The deceased was born near Oriskany Falls, October 19, 1835, and was married at West Winfield on March 12, 1854 to Warren Harrington. She was highly respected as one of the older Ilion residents and loved by all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband and seven children: Mrs. Minnie Pech, Syracuse; Mrs. Freedom Harrington of Burlington, Kan.; Mrs. R. Wingren, Asheville, N.C.; Mrs. William Wooley, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Wallace Warner, Miss Flora and Miss Lodia Harrington of this village; also two granddaughters who reside in Ilion, Miss Frances Harrington and Mrs. James Henchey; also two brothers, George Colburn of Auburn, and Leonard B. Colburn of this place, and one sister, Mrs. Almina Carrier of Phoenix, and 14 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Wed. 25 Feb 1914

Mrs. Warren Harrington—

The funeral of Mrs. Warren Harrington was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from her home, 144 East Clark street, the Rev. C. [Charles] E. Bingham, pastor of the Universalist Church of Herkimer, officiating. There was a large attendance of friends, also many beautiful floral tributes, which attested the love and esteem in which she was held. The bearers were Carl Harrington, William Wooley, Wallace Warner, James Hinchey, Delos M. Dodge and Charles Colburn. The remains were conveyed to the Ilion Cemetery, where they were placed in (?) vault to await burial.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Sat. 28 Feb 1914