

[Hart, Susan Green]

MRS. SUSAN G. HART

The death of Mrs. Susan G. Hart on December 10, in Syracuse, removed one of the oldest Universalists in the country and the oldest member of the First Universalist church, Syracuse. She was born in Clinton, N.Y., ninety-three years ago, the daughter of George Green, a pioneer Universalist and the builder of the Clinton Liberal Institute. She was a lineal descendant of Nathaniel Green and could relate the story of the Cherry Valley Massacre, as was told to her by her grandfather, an eye witness. Aunt Sue, as many loved to call her, possessed to the end, a charming personality which gained and held for her a wide circle of friends.—Mrs. T. D. MacBride.
