

[Hawkins, Annette]

Swale Swipe

Died at the Swale Dec. 29th, aged 38 years, Annette, wife of Frank Hawkins, and was buried in the Swale cemetery. The funeral was held at the church, Rev. E. U. Hutchens, a Universalist minister of Syracuse, officiating. Mrs. Hawkins leaves a husband, three children, numerous relatives and friends to mourn her loss. A sad incident at the last rite, the youngest child, three years old, plead[ed] to see mamma once more. The undertaker opened the coffin and let him see mamma just once more. Mrs. Hawkins was a model housewife, and did not eat of the bread of idleness. She was a member of the Swale church society, and in her death society has lost a faithful member, and the people a good neighbor. Mrs. Hawkins attended Mr. Angel's funeral Monday, was taken with a chill Tuesday night and rapidly grew worse until death at 8 p.m. Friday.
