

[Hawn, Margaret Thayer]

Mrs. Margaret Hawn

Fort Plain, April 4.—Mrs. Margaret Hawn, aged 84 years, widow of Gilford Hawn, died yesterday afternoon at 5:20 o'clock at her home on Center street, after being in poor health for a long time. Mrs. Hawn was most unfortunate in sustaining falls during the winter months. She fell and injured herself twice the past winter and never recovered from her latest accident. She was a woman of pleasing characteristics and was well liked among the many who knew her. She was the oldest member of the Universalist church and always took an active interest in the welfare of the church. She had always been a resident of Fort Plain and died in the same house where she was born, although she had not lived there continuously. Her maiden name was Margaret Thayer. She was a daughter of the late Horace Thayer and Catharine Charlesworth Thayer. The nearest surviving relative is a nephew, Clark Wagner, of this village. Many friends will sincerely regret the passing of Mrs. Hawn. The funeral will be held at the home Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the Rev. H. [Herbert] F. Moulton, D.D., pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. The interment will be in the Fort Plain cemetery.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Tue. 4 Apr 1922

Transcribed on 7 Apr 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY