

[Hayes, Eva Van Camp]

FORT PLAIN RITES HELD FOR MRS. E.V.C. HAYES

FORT PLAIN, March 20.—The funeral of Mrs. Eva Van Camp Hayes, 52, wife of John Hayes, was held in the Catherine Nellis memorial chapel in Fort Plain Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. William A. Haney, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiated. Interment was in the Fort Plain cemetery. Mrs. Hayes died in East Syracuse Friday afternoon after an illness of several months.

She was born in Fort Plain September 17, 1886, daughter of Frances Manzer and the late James Van Camp. She had been a resident of East Syracuse for the past five years. She was a member of the Universalist church.

She is survived by her husband and mother; six daughters, Mrs. Stanley Morgan, Mrs. Paul Morgan, both of Utica; Mrs. Converse Boldt and the Misses Frances, Dorothy and Mary Hayes, East Syracuse; two sons, Robert and Walter, also of East Syracuse; one brother, Robert Van Camp, Fort Plain, also six grandchildren.

Schenectady Gazette, Schenectady NY, Tue. 21 Mar 1939

Transcribed on 22 Dec 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY