

[Hayward, Clinton F.]

Clinton Hayward Funeral Planned

Canandaigua, Apr. 25.—Funeral services for Clinton F. Hayward, who died at his home in Bristol Center early yesterday morning, will be held tomorrow with a private prayer service at 2 p.m. in the home and service at 2:30 in the Universalist church at Baptist Hill.

Rev. Harry Wright and Rev. Robert Dick will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery, Baptist Hill. Mr. Hayward was born in the Town of Richmond, Dec. 1, 1881, the son of Clinton H. and Margaret Sennett Hayward.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Edith Taylor Hayward; one daughter, Mrs. Elmer H. DeSmith, Canandaigua RD 3; one son, David L. Hayward, Bristol Center; three brothers, Hugh and Frank of Canandaigua, and E. C. of Cleveland, O.; three sisters, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Canandaigua, Mrs. Howard Decker, E. Bloomfield, and Mrs. Charles Retchless of Pittsford; three grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Geneva Daily Times, Geneva NY, Tue. 25 Apr 1950

Transcribed on 13 Feb 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY