

[Hazard, Eunice Fairchild]

Mrs. Eunice Fairchild Hazard

Mrs. Eunice Hazard died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lora Hendrickse, of Schuyler Lake, Friday, December 24th after having been confined to her bed for about three weeks, with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Hazard was born in Albany in 1851. When [she was] only two years of age her parents moved to a farm at Brainard's Corners, where she lived until her marriage to Charles Johnson, who was a brother of W. A. Johnson, of this place. He died in Cooperstown in 1898. Sometime afterward she married John Hazard, who died some time ago in Sidney.

Since his death, for the most part, she has made her home with the above mentioned daughter, who gave her mother the best of care during her last illness. She also leaves one brother, Don Fairchild of Rome, one sister, Mrs. Dorr Yates of Pulaski, one grandson, Paul, and several nieces and nephews. The funeral was held at her late home, the Rev. Charles Kramer [of the Universalist Church) officiating.

Mrs. Hazard had not been well for some time, so was unable to go outside her home, but was always glad to meet her friends when they came to see her, and was most pleasant and uncomplaining despite her lameness. She will be missed by her daughter where she had lived for so long, and by her grandson, whom she spent many hours reading to, as well as neighbors and friends. Among those from out of town who attended her funeral were Don Fairchild and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Rome, Mrs. Dorr Yates and daughter of Pulaski, Mrs. Theda Fairchild and son Claude, of Great Bend, Pa., Mrs. G. B. Fairchild of Susquehanna, Pa., Mrs. Clara Jones and daughter, Hazel, Ilion. —Our Schuyler Lake Reporter.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Tue. 31 Dec 1929