

[Hazlett, Alla Frances Nestell]

MRS. THOMAS J. HAZLETT

Alla F. Nestell, wife of City Clerk Thomas J. Hazlett, died this morning at 1:15 o'clock at the Amsterdam Hospital, following an operation for the removal of gall stones, which was performed at the hospital Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Hazlett was a daughter of the late Jonas and Eliza Lipe Nestell, of Fort Plain, and was born in that village April 15, 1858. That place was always her home until 28 years ago, when she was united in marriage to Mr. Hazlett, at Fort Plain, and then came with him to Amsterdam, which city has since been her place of residence. She was a member of the Universalist church at Fort Plain.

Mrs. Hazlett was a woman of refined tastes and domestic nature, who found her greatest happiness in her home. She was gentle, kindly and ready at all times to be of service to others. Her life was one of devotion to duty, and to the welfare of her family and friends. Her sweetness of character endeared her to all within the circle of her acquaintance and her death causes deep sorrow in many hearts. General sympathy goes out to the stricken husband, from whom has been taken a true and loving wife.

Mr. Hazlett survives, together with his three daughters, Mrs. D. D. Hubbs, of this city, Mrs. William B. Murphy, of Gloversville, and Mrs. William McCaffrey, of Amsterdam. Mrs. Hazlett also leaves a sister, Mrs. John G. Smith, of Fort Plain.

Services will be conducted at the house, 26 Stewart street, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, by the Rev. Dr. H. T. McEwen of the Second Presbyterian church. The remains will be taken to Fort Plain on the 9:10 train Sunday morning, where at 2 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a funeral service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Smith, the Rev. Frank Moulton, of Fort Plain, officiating. Interment in the Fort Plain cemetery.
