

[Hazzard, George E.]

George E. Hazzard

George E. Hazzard died in his home at Cortland, on October 20, the day before his fifty-first wedding anniversary. For the past two years he has been in failing health. He was born in Triangle, Broome county, in 1865, and the past forty years of his life were devoted to business in Cortland. He was a life-long member of the Universalist church, becoming a member of the church in Upper Lisle and then in Cortland. He served the latter church thirty-two years as treasurer, resigning in 1940. Rev. Edward C. Downey conducted the funeral service on October 23. To those who knew him, he was one of God's noblemen. He is survived by his wife [Kate]; two sons, Edmund G. of East Rochester and Donald R. Hazzard of Homer; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy H. Glann of Cortland; eleven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
