

[Heafey, John]

John Heafey Dies; Former Local Man

John Heafey, 67, of Mohawk RD 2, former East Herkimer resident for almost 20 years, died yesterday in Little Falls Hospital.

Born July 14, 1897, in Little Falls, a son of Michael and Louise Volland Heafey, he attended schools there and married Mae Van Alstyne there in 1929. She died May 6, 1964. He was an employe[e] of the Burrell Paper Co., Little Falls, retiring in 1963.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Alice Heafey, East Herkimer, and Mrs. Bernard (Jean) Sagatis, of Mohawk RD 2, with whom he had been residing; two sons, John and James, both of East Herkimer; two brothers, James and George, both of Little Falls, and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Lockwood, Little Falls; several grandchildren.

Rev. Robert Sterling, Little Falls Universalist Church pastor, will conduct services [at] 10 a.m. Wednesday from the Holleran Funeral Home, with burial in Church Street Cemetery, Little Falls. Calling hours are 7 to 9 tonight, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 tomorrow.

Evening Telegram, Herkimer NY, Mon. 3 May 1965

Transcribed on 1 Feb 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY