VICTOR HENDEE PASSES AT 73; ILL FOR MONTH
Ex-Supervisor in 12th [Ward] Founded Food Firm

Victor Hendee Sr., 73, former 12th Ward Republican supervisor and pioneer Rochester cooked food merchant, died late last night (Jan. 11, 1939) at Genesee Hospital, following a month's illness.

Mr. Hendee, a native of Webster, had lived for more than a half-century in the 12th Ward. His home was at 25 Edmonds St. Specializing in baked beans, he established the cooked food business about 1900. In recent years a son, Victor Jr., had been associated with him in expanding the enterprise.

Hendee was elected for a term as a member of the Board of Supervisors in 1932. Besides the son, his widow, Mrs. Lottie L. Hendee, a daughter, Mrs. Maude Brigham, Perry, and a granddaughter survive. Funeral arrangements had not been completed last night.
