

[Herkimer, Seneca]

Seneca Herkimer

Seneca Herkimer, a resident for forty-six years of the Nineteenth Ward, died of apoplexy on Sunday at the home of his son, Robert H. Herkimer, M.D., 242 Sixth avenue. The funeral services will be held to-night, Dr. L. Ward Brigham [Universalist] officiating. He was for many years in business in Washington Market, but long retired. He was born July 18, 1833 in Herkimer county, N.Y., and was a descendant of General Nicholas Herkimer, a soldier of the Revolutionary War. He leaves his widow, Eliza Youngs [Young], and two sons, Robert H., who is chief medical inspector for this borough, and Warren E. Herkimer.
