Estella Pratt Hewitt

Mrs. Estella Pratt Hewitt, widow of Delevan Hewitt of the firm of Hewitt & Hillock, whose death occurred Thursday night at the home of her sister at Salisbury Center and was briefly chronicled in Friday's issue of The Morning Herald, was seventy-one years of age. She was born in the house in which her death occurred, a daughter of Horace and Abigail [Marsh] Pratt. She always resided in the vicinity of her birthplace until her marriage to Mr. Hewitt, when she came to this city where she had since resided. A woman whose every thought was for the uplift and betterment of those around her, she was greatly loved and highly esteemed. She was a member of the Universalist church of Salisbury and that at Gloversville.

Mrs. Hewitt is survived by two sisters, Miss Pratt, who resided with her at her home in this city, and Mrs. Harvey Luther of Salisbury Center.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her sister at Salisbury Center and interment was made at that place.
