

[Hicks, Peleg F.]

Bristol, N. Y.—In the death of Peleg F. Hicks, which occurred on Thursday of last week, Bristol has lost one of its most worthy and highly esteemed citizens. Mr. Hicks was a native of Bristol, and most of his life was spent in that town. He was 67 years old, and during all the active period of his life he was ever ready to lend a helping hand to any who needed help. He was a member of the Universalist church of Bristol, and because of his helpfulness in that relation, he will be missed there, perhaps, more than in any other place. Always active in politics, he was a great help to the Republican party, of which he was an original member. In all the relations of life, as a church member, a citizen, a friend and a neighbor, he was a true type of generous manhood, and that he was appreciated by his fellow citizens, was proven by the many positions of trust he was called upon to fill, and the large attendance at his funeral, which was held in the Universalist church on Saturday, May 30. His pastor, Rev. N. J. Orelup, officiated. He leaves two daughters to mourn his loss, Mrs. Hiram Eggleston of Geneva and Miss Carrie Hicks of Bristol.
