

[Hill, Charles G.]

Charles G. Hill died at his home in the western part of this town on Thursday of last week after a lingering illness from consumption. The deceased was fifty-one years and eight months old. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hill and his aged mother survives him. The father died some seven years ago. Other surviving members of the family are two sons, Gregory C. and Charles C. Hill; three sisters, Mrs. Emma S. Cummings and Mrs. Etta M. Sizer of Victor; and Mrs. Elvina S. French of LaMoore, North Dakota; and one brother, Homer J. Hill of this town. The funeral services were held at the home on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. W. H. Skeels, pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church, officiating. Interment was made in Boughton Hill Cemetery.
