

[Hill, Laura A. Woolston]

Mrs. Laura A. Woolston Hill, widow of the late George Hill, who died seven years ago, died Sunday evening at the Memorial Hospital, Canandaigua, where she was taken three weeks ago as she had been a sufferer from cancer for some time. She was born at Victor, seventy-two years ago and most of her life was spent in the town. Her parents were the late William and Laura Andrews Woolston of Victor. Near surviving relatives are three brothers: William Woolston of Pittsford, John A. of Victor, Daniel of Perinton; a sister, Mrs. Wm. Hill of Victor. The funeral was held Tuesday at the Universalist church at Victor, at 3 p.m.

Monroe County Mail, Fairport NY, Thu. 28 Jul 1910

VICTOR

Mrs. Laura A. W. Hill of Victor died July 24. She was born at the old homestead north of Victor, [in] 1839. Most of her life was spent in this vicinity. She was married to Geo. W. Hill in 1862, who died in 1903. Mrs. Hill was for many years a loyal member of St. Paul's Universalist church, being actively interested in every department of church work. She had been a member of the Unity Club since its foundation, and was also an enthusiastic member of the local W.C.T.U. A woman of talented mind and strong Christian character, her departure is mourned by the entire neighborhood. The funeral service was held at the church she loved so well. Her pastor, Rev. E. P. Wood, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Loren Stiles of the M. E. church and Rev. F. W. Hill of the Presbyterian church.

The Convention at Work, Herkimer NY, September 1910