

[Hill, Morris D.]

Morris D. Hill

Morris D. Hill, whose death was briefly noted last week, was born on Cohocton [on] August 27, 1874, and passed away at his home in Atlanta, N.Y., Tuesday, October 3, 1911, after a long illness with Bright's disease.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Seth A. [and Maryette] Hill. The greater part of his thirty-seven years had been spent in Cohocton and vicinity. For eleven years he was an efficient salesman for the Geo. W. Peck Co., first at their store [?] and later as manager of the Peck stores at Hornell, Dansville and Jamestown.

He was possessed of a pleasant disposition and made a wide circle of friends who will regret his departure.

[On] July 14, 1897, he was united in marriage with Miss Effie Terry of Atlanta who, with a little daughter, Beulah, is left to mourn a loving husband and father. He also leaves two brothers, Smith B. Hill of this place, and Chas. L., formerly with the U.S. Army in the Philippines.

The funeral was held at his late home in Atlanta Friday at one o'clock. Interment in the family plot in Maple View cemetery in this place. Rev. H. [Herbert] P. Morrell [Universalist] of Buffalo, conducted the service. Members of the I.O.O.F. lodge in this place, of which he was a member, acted as bearers. Beautiful floral pieces from the I.O.O.F., Sons of Veterans, the Embroidery Club and many others attested the esteem in which he was held.
