William F. Hill Dies in West

William F. Hill of Cass City, Mich., died January 20, 1952, at the age of 82. He was the son of William and Miranda Hill, born on the Victor-Mendon road, on the farm presently owned by George Hollingworth who purchased the farm twenty years ago. Besides working the farm he operated a livery stable in Victor for some time and he and his wife ran an eating place at the farm, called "Hillsworth Inn". He and his wife went to Michigan 20 years ago and Mrs. Hill passed away in 1941. Survivors are one son, Russell and two grandchildren of Pontiac, Mich; one brother, George Hill of Rochester. Services were held at the Tischer Funeral home, Victor, at 2 Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 23, and conducted by Rev. Nelson L. Lobdell [Universalist]. Interment in Boughton Hill cemetery.
