

[Hitchcock, Louisa A.]

LOUISA A. HITCHCOCK

The remains of Mrs. Louisa A., widow of Elmer D. Hitchcock, late of this village, were brought to Newark Friday from Jersey City by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hough. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock in the Universalist church, Rev. J. J. Brayton of Clifton Springs officiating, and the remains were placed in the receiving vault in Willow Avenue cemetery. They will be buried in May, when Mr. and Mrs. Hough will come up again. Mrs. Hitchcock lived in Newark a number of years, her husband being a harness dealer here. Mr. Hitchcock died a number of years ago and for several years Mrs. Hitchcock has lived with her daughter in Jersey City. Deceased was a woman who was always held in high esteem in Newark, and she had many warm friends. She was a good woman in every sense of the word, and was dearly loved by her family. She had been sick only a short time with pneumonia, which is a hard disease for one of her age, 81 years, to shake off. She leaves three children: Mrs. W. L. Sternberg of Geneva, Mrs. Cora Hough, wife of Geo. Hough, formerly of Newark, now of Jersey city, and E. D. Hitchcock of Geneva. They are almost prostrated with grief, particularly Mrs. Hough, who had made the declining days of her mother so easy and pleasant, and they have they sympathy of many friends.
