

[Hitchcock, Maryette Bronson]

LEE.

Lee Center—Mrs. Maryette Bronson Hitchcock, widow of Curtis B. Hitchcock, died at her home in Lee Center August 19, 1911, in the 79th year of her age. She was born in the town of Floyd, a daughter of the late Eli and Rosina Bronson. Married at the age of nineteen she had always since resided in the home where she died, respected and loved by family, friends and kindred. Her home was her kingdom, but she was always ready to lend a helping hand to any who were in need. She was the mother of seven children, five of whom have passed on to the better land, where her faith assured her she will meet them and all the dear ones gone before. She was a firm believer in the universal fatherhood of God and that faith sustained her in her hours of suffering. She bids farewell to all who so kindly cared for her during her illness which, while not long, was severe, and patiently waited and longed for the summons to pass on to the better life, with a prayer on her lips for the welfare of those left behind. She was a faithful member of the Universalist Church. She is survived by two children, Willis G. Hitchcock of Freeport, L. I., and Mrs. Kittie Lyman of Lee Center, also six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, three sisters, Mrs. H. A. Bork of Lee, Mrs. C. Dean of Vernon Center, and Mrs. E. J. Bellinger of Brooklyn, and one brother, Charles E. Bronson of Boonville. Funeral will be conducted by the Rev. George Cross Baner of Utica, assisted by Rev. George Dermott of Lee Center, at 2 o'clock Tuesday, Aug. 23.
