Death of Miss Leona M. Hoag

After a long period of ill health as the result of a heart ailment, Leona M. Hoag passed away at the family home near Dimmick Hollow Friday morning at 11:45.

Leona May Hoag, the oldest of the nine children of Lynn and Inez (Colburn) Hoag, was born in Morris township Aug. 23, 1923. Although never strong, she attended school much of the time and was a member of the eighth grade in the central school here this year, where her kindly ways won her a host of friends among teachers and pupils alike. She was particularly devoted to her younger brothers and sisters and never missed an opportunity to perform some act of helpfulness in the home, where she will be greatly missed.

Largely attended funeral services conducted by Rev. F. [Frederick] G. Leonard of the Universalist church, were held at Sloan's funeral home in Morris [on] Sunday afternoon at 2, with four uncles, Adelbert Hoag, Perry Hoag, Arthur Hoag and Glenn Hoag, acting as bearers. Interment was in the Colburn family plot in the new part of Hillington cemetery.

Immediate surviving relatives include the parents; three brothers, Robert, Douglas and Leland Hoag; five sisters, Ella, Doris, Aleen, Geraldine and Eleanor Hoag; two grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hoag of Morris, and numerous aunts and uncles, to all of whom sincere sympathy will be extended.
