

[Hoag, Oliver J. T.]

OLIVER HOAG DIES; FORMER RESIDENT OF FAYETTEVILLE

FAYETTEVILLE — Oliver J. T. Hoag, a former resident of this village, died in his home in Skaneateles after a long illness last Thursday. Mr. Hoag was a well known mail carrier in Syracuse for many years although he made his home in Fayetteville.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emma L. Hoag; two sons, Russell A. and Robert B. Hoag, all of Skaneateles; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Wiltsie and Mrs. Harry File of this village.

The funeral was held from his late home Saturday at 2 p.m. with interment at Kirkville.

Fayetteville Bulletin, Fayetteville NY, Thu. 25 Sep 1930

NILES

Niles, Sept. 27.—Funeral services for Oliver Hoag were held from the home, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Mr. [Frederick W.] Betts of the Universalist Church of Syracuse officiated. Rev. Lee W. Lawrence, pastor of the Little Brown Church, offered prayer. Miss Marion Foster and George R. Loyster of Owasco sang two appropriate hymns. Mr. Hoag was well known and respected. He had been in poor health for two years. His wife and two sons survive him.

Auburn Citizen, Auburn NY, Sat. 27 Sep 1930