

[Hoard, Tyron A.]

HERKIMER BREVITIES

Dr. Tyron A. Hoard died at his home in this village early yesterday morning at the age of 39 years. Deceased has been in poor health for some time past and had been confined to the house for about two months. Dr. Hoard was for some time a dentist in this place, and for a few years was associated in the practice of dentistry with the late Dr. Chatfield, under the firm name of Chatfield & Hoard. After the death of Dr. Chatfield, deceased practiced his profession here for some little time, and in 1886 removed to Brooklyn, where, associated with John M. Atkins, of the city mentioned, he conducted for some time the Brooklyn Dental supply depot, at 310 Fulton street. Returning to his home in this village in February last, in poor health and gradually declining until called away. Dr. Hoard was united in marriage in September, 1878 [on the 11th] to Jennie A. Dygert, step-daughter of the late Judge [Amos] Prescott, of this place. Mrs. Hoard died in June, 1890, and there is left surviving one son, Prescott D. Hoard, of this place, also a mother, Mrs. John L. Hoard, of Frankfort, two sisters, Mrs. N. A. Sterling and Mary C. Hoard of Frankfort, and four brothers, James H., Andrew, and William Hoard of Frankfort, and Charles Hoard of Syracuse. Deceased was a member of Olive Branch lodge, F.& A.M. of Frankfort, and of Herkimer council, No. 336, Royal Arcanum, of this place. Funeral services will be held from the late residence of the deceased, Wednesday at 2 p.m., the Rev. C. E. Fisher of the Universalist church officiating. Interment will take place at the Mohawk cemetery.

Evening Times, Little Falls NY, Mon. 28 Sep 1891

Transcribed on 6 Dec 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY