

[Hoke, Louisa Conrad]

MRS. LOUISA HOKE

Fort Plain, Dec. 23.—Mrs. Louisa Hoke, aged 71 years, died Friday at the home of her nephew, Charles J. Lumley, in this village. She was born in the town of Cherry Valley. In early life she married the late Harvey Hoke and for a long time resided in the town of Stark. She had been a resident of Fort Plain for the past eight years. Death was due to the infirmities of age. Mrs. Hoke was an attendant of the Universalist church and was always interested in church work. She was well known and a large circle of friends and acquaintances regret her death. Mrs. Hoke is survived by three nephews and three nieces, Edgar Conrad, of Pittsburg, Kan., Elmer Hewes, of Oregon, Charles J. Lumley, of this village, Mrs. A. E. Hall, of New Iberia, La., Mrs. Jack Rogers, of Benson, and Mrs. Cora L. Wagner, of Fort Plain. The funeral was held from the Lumley home this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Herbert Frank Moulton, D.D., pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. The burial was in Fort Plain cemetery.
