

[Hopkins, Prudence Adams]

Death of Mrs. Prudence Hopkins

Prudence Adams Franklin Hopkins died at her home in Honeoye Wednesday afternoon after a short illness caused by heart disease. Mrs. Hopkins was the youngest daughter of Alden Adams and Lorena Short and was born near Richmond Center February 3, 1849. [On] September 22, 1876, she married Alfred Franklin of Honeoye, who died in 1906. Six years later, she married Lemuel Hopkins of Rochester, who died in 1914. Mrs. Hopkins is survived by one [adopted] daughter, Mary A. Phalen, and one grandson, Edward Franklin, of Honeoye; also several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held at the home in Honeoye this afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Campbell of the Baptist Hill Universalist church [in Bristol] officiating. Burial in Lakeview cemetery.

Livonia Gazette, Livonia NY, Fri. 22 Jun 1928

Transcribed on 5 Aug 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY