[Hopson, Roy William "Jake"]

Dolgeville
Roy W. Hopson Expires at 71

Roy William (Jake) Hopson, 71, of Dolgeville, died Saturday in the Veterans Administration hospital at Syracuse after a long illness. He was born March 24, 1892 in Dolgeville, the son of William and Sarah Lyons Hopson.

He had been employed in the local Postoffice from 1923 until his retirement in 1949 and was one of the first three letter carriers in this village.

Mr. Hopson was a member of the First Universalist Church, Dolgeville; and a member of the American Legion Post of Dolgeville, being a veteran of World War I. Surviving are several cousins.

The Leader-Herald, Gloversville NY, Tue. 21 Apr 1964

Hopson Funeral Held

Funeral services for Roy William (Jake) Hopson of this village, whose death occurred April 18 in [the] Veterans Administration Hospital in Syracuse, were held at 2 Wednesday afternoon from the Moore Funeral Home, with Rev. Robert Sterling, pastor of St. Paul's Universalist Church of Little Falls officiating.

Burial was made in the Dibble-Tuttle Cemetery, town of Salisbury.

Bearers were Frank Ostermayer, James McCurdy, Cornelius DeRidder, Charles Hewitt, Fred Frey aned George R. Davis, all employes [sic] of the Dolgeville Postoffice.

The Leader-Herald, Gloversville NY, Fri. 24 Apr 1964

Transcribed on 27 Aug 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY