MRS. ZIDANA HORTON DIED MONDAY

Aged Resident of Wildman Avenue Succumbed Following an Illness of Seventeen Weeks—Funeral Today, Thursday.

Mrs. Zidana Rowell Horton, widow of the late Lewis Freeman Horton, a pioneer resident of this village died at the home of her daughter. Mrs. Charlotte Teter in Wildman avenue, Monday, March 5, 1923 after an illness of seventeen weeks of heart disease, aged 89 years and 10 months. Mrs. Horton, who came here as a bride over seventy years ago, was born in Rochester, N.Y. She was united in marriage with Lewis F. Horton at Churchville, N.Y. and came to the homestead now owned and occupied by H. H. Bartlett where she resided until after the passing of her husband. To them were born six children: Lewis and Hiram who have passed on, also Charlotte Estell Horton Teter, Mrs. Harriett Horton Babcock of Hallsport, Henry B. Horton of Batavia, N.Y., and Miss Ruth M. Horton at home. Deceased had lived to see all the old friends of her early life, who welcomed her to the old home town so many years ago, pass over the border to the land from which there is no returning, with but two exceptions and they are Mrs. Maria Jacobs and Mrs. Violette Rose. Farewell services were conducted from the late home today, Thursday, March 8, at 2 p.m., and interment was in the family plot in Rural cemetery. Rev. Dr. Wm. Manning Todd, pastor of the Universalist society of which she was a member, officiated.
