

[Hosford, Clara L. Evans]

RICHFIELD SPRINGS

Mrs. Clara L. Hosford, widow of Frank Hosford, died at her home here. Mrs. Hosford was born 56 years ago at Litchfield, Herkimer County, but she had lived in this village for 20 years. She was a daughter of David and Mary Evans. She was a member of the Universalist Church. She is survived by one son, H. Elmer Hosford, and a daughter, Mrs. Burr Cameron of this place; two brothers and two sisters, David and Minnie and Robert Evans of Litchfield, and Mrs. Catharine Joslin of Dansville, Mich. The funeral will be held to-morrow noon and the Rev. L. C. Robinson will officiate.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Wed. 27 Sep 1916

CLARA L. HOSFORD

Death came peacefully to Mrs. Clara L. Hosford, widow of Frank Hosford, at her home in this village Sunday evening, September 24th, after a long illness from Bright's disease. Mrs. Hosford was born in the town of Litchfield, Herkimer county 56 years ago, the daughter of David and Mary Evans, and had lived in this village over twenty years. Deceased is survived by a son, H. Elmer Hosford, and a daughter, Mrs. Burr G. Cameron of this village; two brothers and two sisters, David, Robert and Minnie Evans of Litchfield, and Mrs. Catherine Joslyn of Dansville, Michigan. The funeral will be held at the late home at noon today, the Reverend L. H. Robinson of the Universalist church, of which church deceased was a member, officiating.

Deep sympathy is felt for the son and daughter in their bereavement. Mrs. Hosford was a woman beautiful in character and exemplary in deed. Many friends, and many acquaintances who held her in high respect, will mourn her loss.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 28 Sep 1916