

[Hosmer, Pauline Brown]

Wife of Floyd Hosmer Dies

The community of Clare was greatly saddened by the word received from the Hepburn Hospital on Oct. 6th, that Pauline Brown Hosmer, wife of Floyd Hosmer, had died there as the result of child birth. The funeral was held at her former home in Edwards on October 9th, Wallace Fisk, pastor of the Edwards Universalist Church, officiating. Burial was at Edwards.

Mrs. Hosmer was born in Edwards, Oct. 29, 1897, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown. She married Floyd Hosmer March 25, 1919, and they resided in Fine until moving to Clare five years ago. Surviving besides her parents and husband are six children, Barbara, 11, Virginia, 8, William, 6, Olive Ann, 2½, Floyd Jr., 15 months, and the infant, Lucile Mary. Mrs. Hosmer was a member of the Edwards Chapter O.E.S.

Sr. Lawrence Plaindealer, Canton NY, Tue. 20 Oct 1931

Transcribed on 15 Apr 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY