MISS VIOLET HOUGHTALING

At the Homer Folk hospital, Oneonta, Sunday evening, January 21st, occurred the death of Miss Violet Houghtaling. She had been a patient in the hospital for the past three years.

She was born September 11, 1921 in the town of Morris, the only daughter of the late Starr Houghtaling and Clara Fitch Houghtaling. She lived with her mother for a while in Morris village and attended school. Later they moved to New Berlin where, after a time, she was obliged to give up school on account of her health. She was a member of the Universalist church. She possessed a sweet, lovable disposition, very patiently bearing all her suffering.

She is survived by her mother, now Mrs. Maurice Wightman; a stepfather, Maurice Wightman, and a brother, Donovan Houghtaling, all of South New Berlin.

The funeral was held at Sloan's Undertaking parlors Wednesday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. F. G. Leonard officiating.
