

[Houle, Alexina LaFave]

Mrs. Houle Passes Away

Mrs. Alexina Houle, 74, a resident of Dolgeville for the past 20 years, died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George B. Randall, 138 N. Main St., Dolgeville, after a long illness.

Mrs. Houle was born Dec. 25, 1881, in St. Anne, Quebec, Canada, daughter of Lewis and Louise Sacuia LaFave. In 1899, she was married to Joseph Houle who died several years ago. Before going to Dolgeville she lived at Tupper Lake.

She was a member of the Universalist Church in Dolgeville and of the VFW Auxiliary of Little Falls.

Besides Mrs. Randall, she is survived by six other daughters and three sons: Mrs. Pearl Lincourt, Lyons Falls; Mrs. Edna Denapole, Salisbury Center; Mrs. Irene McLaughlin, Newport; Mrs. Laura Snyder and Mrs. Lucille Davis, Little Falls; Miss Aldia Houle, Rome; Ovila Houle, Little Falls; Arthur and Edward Houle, both of Massena; two sisters, Mrs. Victoria Lafrance and Mrs. Mary Reandean, both of Tupper Lake; three brothers, Lawrence, Clifford and Joseph LaFave, all of Tupper Lake; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Rome Daily Sentinel, Rome NY, Mon. 1 Oct 1956

Transcribed on 1 Aug 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY