

[House, Bertha]

MRS. BERTHA HOUSE

The death of Mrs. W. C. House, the wife of Clayton House, who conducts the drug store in Brewerton, occurred in the Crouse-Irving Hospital in Syracuse on March 18. Mrs. House had been a member of the Universalist Church in Central Square for twenty-nine years, joining with a large group in the pastorate of the late Rev. Julia M. Tobey. Mrs. House was a loyal member of the Eastern Star and township chairman for the Red Cross.

She is survived by her husband, a brother, a nephew and nieces. The memorial service was conducted by the Rev. William J. Metz on March 21.
