AUCTIONEER DIES IN MIDDLEPORT

Funeral of Edward House Will Be Held Friday With Burial at West Ridgeway.

Edward House, 67, well known auctioneer and a retired farmer, died this morning at his home in Middleport, following a week's illness brought on by two strokes of apoplexy.

Born in the town of Shelby, Orleans county, Mr. House had resided in Middleport for fifteen years. He is survived by his widow Clara B. [Simpson] House; two sons, Stanley of Knowlesville, and Raymond M., of this city; and one daughter, Mrs. John Crowley of Middleport.

The funeral will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock daylight savings time, at the home, 32 Church street, by the Rev. Donald K. Evans, of the Middleport Universalist church. Burial will be in West Ridgeway cemetery.
