

[Howard, Eliza Nash]

MCLEAN

McLean, Aug. 28.—Thursday afternoon last Mrs. Eliza Howard passed away, after an illness that extended over a period of several months. She was a great sufferer but bore it with great fortitude and bravery, only being in bed a little more than two weeks. A loving wife and mother has gone from the home and the community has lost a good christian woman, one who was ever ready to speak a word of good cheer and encouragement. She was beloved by all with whom she came in contact, and was well known, having been reared and always lived in this community. She was a member of the Universalist church, and from a young lady sung [sic] in the choir of that church whenever it was possible to be present. Her husband, Alvin F. Howard, her daughters, Mrs. Lou Palmer of Seattle, and Miss Edna Howard of this place, together with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Warfield of Cortland, and many relatives and friends mourn her passing away. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, and prove the esteem in which she was held. Her pastor, Rev. Mr. [W. D.] Potter, spoke words of spiritual comfort, and she was borne to her resting place by her friends, Messrs. G. B. Sickmon, D. R. Stout, J. C. Fitts and C. A. Hast.

Cortland Democrat, Cortland NY, Fri. 30 Aug 1907

Transcribed on 24 Feb 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY