

[Howe, Huldah Irena]

Deaths.

In Nunda, Illinois, of consumption, Mrs. HULDAH IRENA HOWE, wife of C. C. Howe, formerly of Livonia, N.Y., aged nearly 24 years. Mrs. H. gave testimony to the power of true christian faith in soothing the spirit amid death's ravages, and prepare it for a peaceful flight to its immortal home above. After requesting her family connections not to shed tears of anguish for her, she calmly and resignedly fell asleep. Numerous were her mourning kindred, nearly all of whom rejoice in the same faith which cheered and sustained her in sickness and in death. Her funeral services were attended in the Universalist church in McHenry, by a numerous assembly of mourning friends and neighbors, to whom a discourse was preached by the writer, on the 17th.

O. [Orrin] Roberts

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat, 25 Apr 1857
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 18 Jan 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY