

[Howell, Fred Bowen]

Fred Bowen Howell, 75, well known resident of Medina, died in Rochester General Hospital early Sunday morning, where he has been a patient since April 17. Mr. Howell had been in ill health for several years.

Born August, 17, 1874 his parents were the late Rev. Henry and Mrs. Adelaide (Bowen) Howell. Mr. Howell was a salesman for S. A. Cook & Co. for many years, later operating farms at Ridgeway Corners. He was a former member of the Village Board of Trustees, and a former director of the Union Bank and the Medina Savings & Loan Association. Mr. Howell engaged in real estate development for several years, opening up the tract now known as Howell Parkway. He lived at 526 Erie Street.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Bertha Howell and one nephew, Roland Howell, both of Medina. The body is resting at the home of his nephew, 315 West Center, from where funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. The Rev. Gail Bascombe, pastor of the Ridgeway Universalist Church will officiate and burial will be in Boxwood Cemetery.
