

[Hoyt, Chester]

Marathon

The funeral of Mr. Chester Hoyt which was held at his late residence to-day was very largely attended. Rev. D. Ballou of Utica officiated. Rev. e. R. D. Briggs, who is a warm friend of the family, was also present. The choir rendered very fine selections and many spoke in high terms of the beautiful sermon. Many flowers were placed on and around the casket, the gifts of dear friends of the bereaved family. Relatives and friemds were present from McGrawville, Marathon, Binghamton, Whitney Point, and many present from the Universalist church at Upper Lisle where deceased had been a faithful attendant when health would permit. The interment was at Marathon cemetery. Mr. A. C. Baker was funeral director.

Evening Standard, Cortland NY, Thu. 26 Sep 1895

Transcribed on 21 Jul 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY