

[Hufnail, Frank E.]

Frank Hufnail

Fort Plain, July 20—Frank E. Hufnail Sr., 74, former clerk of Montgomery county, died at 10:50 last evening at his home on Center street after an illness of about a month. Mr. Hufnail was born January 30, 1862 at Brookmans Corners, son of George and Liza Young Hufnail. Besides being county clerk at one time, he also served as town clerk, fire chief and a Democrat county committeeman. For some years Mr. Hufnail conducted a hotel here and later a restaurant on Division street. He also at one time conducted a meat market. He was a member of the Universalist church. Surviving besides the widow, who was Miss Viola Brookman, are six daughters, Mrs. Clara Sneck, Mrs. Ward Selwood, Mrs. Harold Timmerman, and Misses Laura, Frances and Edith Hufnail all of this village; three sons, Edward and Frank, Jr. of Fort Plain and George of Summit, N. J.; a brother, John Hufnail, Salt Springville; a sister, Mrs. Mortimer Smith of Canajoharie; also four grandchildren. The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. from the home, Rev. Gustav Ulrich, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating.
