

[Hughes, Samuel]

In Pittsford, Monroe co. on the 7th of June last, Mr. SAMUEL HUGHES, in the 79th year of his age. Mr. H. was one of the pioneers in the town in which he died, having resided therein nearly forty years. His habits of industry and uprightness in business rendered him a very useful citizen. He reared a numerous and respectable family of children, four of whom survive to mourn his departure... His funeral services were attended by a Methodist minister, because a Universalist was not then to be obtained. Like a shock of corn fully ripe, he was gathered to the garner of God.

P. M. [Rev. Pitt Morse]

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, 25 Nov 1854
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 28 Jan 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY