

[Hungerford, Leland O.]

Leland O. Hungerford

The death of Leland O. Hungerford on Thursday of last week came as a shock to his many friends. He had been in poor health for over a year but was able to get about and had attended a picnic at Jefferson Park a few days before his death. He had heart trouble and the end came all too soon.

He was born in Henderson and lived here all his life. He was the son of Harvey and Marie Wilkinson Hungerford. He married Miss Rose Stratton, who survives him; also one son, Ethelbert Hungerford of Harmon-on-Hudson; one daughter, Mrs. R. S. Rhodes of Adams, and four grandchildren, Mary Jane and Junior Hungerford and Junior and Leland Rhodes; one brother, DeWitt Hungerford of Henderson, and several nieces and nephews.

His funeral was held from his late home Sunday afternoon, Rev. Gustav H. Ulrich, pastor of the Universalist church, conducting the services. The interment was at Evergreen cemetery. The house and grounds were filled with the many who came to pay a last tribute to a friend and neighbor. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers.

Mr. Hungerford was one of the town assessors at the time of his death. The wife, who is left alone in the home, has the sympathy of everyone in her bereavement. Only a little time and our bark will cross to the other shore, and we have faith that in the life beyond we will greet our friends once more.

Jefferson County Journal, Adams NY, Wed. 7 Sep 1927

Transcribed on 29 Nov 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY