

[Hunn, James G.]

Bristol, N. Y.—The funeral of James G. Hunn, oldest son of Nathan Hunn, was attended in the Universalist church at this place, on Tuesday of last week. The very large congregation present on that occasion attested in stronger terms than words can do the deep sympathy felt by the whole community for the bereaved parents and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. F. Gates, assisted by Rev. Mr. White, of Branchport, and Rev's Dewey and Chandler of Bristol Center. Mr. Thomas Hunn of Bristol Center found on his return home from the funeral of his brother's son, a letter notifying him of the death of his own oldest son, who had died suddenly a few days before at Cedarville, Kansas. How truly is it said that "in the midst of life, we are in death."
