

[Hunt, Rensselaer K.]

Rensselaer K. Hunt

Rensselaer K. Hunt, for more than half a century a well known farmer of the town of Watertown, died at his home Tuesday, aged 75 years. Mr. Hunt had been in poor health for some time and his death was not wholly unexpected.

Mr. Hunt was born in the town of Pinckney, Lewis county, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunt. For 60 years he had resided in the town of Watertown. His wife died about six months ago.

He is survived by two brothers, Leonard Hunt of Pierrepont Manor and Segar Hunt of Lacona, and one sister, Miss Alice Hunt of Pierrepont Manor.

The funeral will be held from his late home in the town of Watertown on Friday at 2 p.m., Rev. Moses H. Harris, D.D. of All Souls church, [Universalist] officiating. Interment will be made in Brookside cemetery.
