

[Hunt, Sally Ann Goodrich]

DEATHS.

In Sidney, on Monday, the 13th ult., Mrs. SALLY ANN HUNT, wife of Mr. R. Hunt, and daughter of Mr. Silas Goodrich, of Kortright.

To eulogize is not the intention of this notice. The deceased only needed to be known, to be esteemed and beloved. In all the relations of life she was found faithful.—She was a dutiful child, a loving and beloved sister, an affectionate wife, respected by her numerous acquaintances; and her death much lamented by all who knew her. Her memory will be cherished with affection by a large circle of relatives and friends.

She bore a painful and protracted illness with patience and resignation rarely equaled, and finally met the grim monster, death, with a fortitude which is the natural consequence of an unwavering trust and confidence in a God of unerring wisdom and boundless goodness. In regard to the future she had no fears. She believed that the goodness of that Being who had watched over, provided for, and protected her in life, was not bounded by death; but that he would be the same kind Father, the same unchanging friend and benefactor, when Time's rapid current should [would] have borne her to the ocean of eternity. Death to her therefore was disarmed of its terrors and robbed of its sting.

Her funeral was attended on the 15th, by a large concourse of people, when a discourse adapted to the occasion was delivered by Mr. E. E. Guild [Universalist].—Delaware Gazette
