

[Hunter, Deryl]

The Hunter Funeral

The funeral of the late Deryl Hunter, who died at his home near Scipio Center, Saturday, was held at the house yesterday at 2 p.m. Rev. Harry Wright [Universalist] of Batavia officiated. Burial was made at Scipio Center.

The Citizen, Auburn NY, Tue. 8 Nov 1910

Owasco Lake Paragraphs

Owasco Lake, Nov. 9.—After a lingering illness, in Scipio, Nov. 5, occurred the death of Deryl Hunter, aged 76 years. Funeral was held at his late home conducted by Rev. Wright of Corfu. Mr. Hunter married Miss Emeline Elizabeth Freeman more than fifty years ago. She survives him. Besides the widow he leaves four children: two sons, Edward and Howard Hunter, and Mrs. Alberta Allen and Mrs. William Wheat. A large circle of friends and neighbors congregated at his late home to pay a tribute of respect. He was firm in his principles of right. Burial was made in Scipio Rural cemetery.

N. Hoagland of Aurora attended the funeral of the late Mr. Hunter and remained with the family for a visit.

...

Mrs. William Munger attended the funeral of the late Mr. Hunter. Mrs. George Clark of Ensenore and Nelson O'Hara also attended the funeral.

The Citizen, Auburn NY, Fri. 11 Nov 1910